

Don't fill in the gaps!

Write the missing words on the side. First, try to recall the words on your own. Then feel free to check with the people sitting next to you. The memory of a group can be more powerful than the memory of just one individual. Then listen again and check your answers.

1 What, in your opinion, m_____ a good leader? _____

2 Some leaders have led their countries into d_____ situations. _____

3 I think, ultimately, you want a leader who is also a s_____ . _____

4 The greatest leaders are not in it for their own a_____ . _____

5 Good leaders lead on b_____ of the people. _____

6 For the sake of the land, leaders sometimes need to go through s_____ . _____

7 Great leaders are not seeking s_____ - g_____ . _____

8 They don't want to f_____ their own nest. _____

9 The Dalai Lama has been in e_____ for many years. _____

10 Nelson Mandela was in j_____ for many years. _____

11 A true leader is someone who is i_____ . _____

12 A great leader e_____ the aspirations of the people. _____

Odd-Ones-Out

Which one of the people mentioned below is the odd-one-out? You have one minute to come up with as many solutions as you can! Be ready to justify your choices.

Nelson Mandela / Aung San Suu Kyi / Mother Teresa / Muhammad Yunus / Martin Luther King / Mahatma Gandhi / the Dalai Lama / Desmond Tutu

What makes a good leader? – Personal reflection on the video

Think of someone who has inspired you. Was this person a leader? Why? Why not?

Think of a time when you did something for the interest of someone else – you acted for the sake of others. What was the situation? What made you do what you did?
